

EDUARDO VALDIVIA ZAMBRANA JOINS BOLIVIAN-AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE INTERNATIONAL ADVISORY COUNCIL

New York, June 15, 2017 — The Bolivian American Chamber of Commerce (BACC) today announced the appointment of Eduardo Valdivia Zambrana as a member of its International Advisory Council as of July 2016.

Mr. Valdivia is currently the General Manager of Grupo DONAL, SA (Bolivia) where he focuses on their continued expansion (Donal Heladería, Restaurant Cortijo, Donal Events, El Cortijo Pub and the future resort - Donal Cortijo), as well as ISA Construction Company, a subsidiary, and HONSA, SA (Honda Motor Company representative). In addition, he recently founded, Multivalores Agency Bolsa SA (financial securities firm), where he is Chairman.

“We are honored to have Eduardo on our International Advisory Council”, said Iván Rebolledo, President of the BACC. “His youth, thought-leadership, and multifaceted business holdings clearly make him a key business leader in Bolivia with international goals”.

He has a degree in Financial Engineering from the Universidad Privada Boliviana (UPB) and postgraduate studies in Corporate Finance at Fundação Getulio Vargas (FGV).

###

The Bolivian-American Chamber of Commerce was established in 1983 as a private, professional organization aimed at fostering and promoting trade, commerce and investment between Bolivia and the United States. Over the years, its corporate membership has grown to include companies headquartered in Europe, Asia, and elsewhere in Latin America. Currently, the BACC’s membership represents over 80% of total foreign direct investment in Bolivia and has become a prominent voice in North America-Bolivia relations.

Media Contact:
James Huber
Tel: +1.212.729.1665